Workshop choices - 1

1. “Fur coat and nae knickers”: How well do you know your suppliers?
 - ▶ Delivered by Wendy Goucher an Information Security Specialist at Goucher Consulting which is based in Scotland
 - ▶ When looking at Supply Chain Risk we need to consider Protection: What risks are we taking? What are our legal and technical vulnerabilities and what reputational damage are we potentially exposing ourselves to.
2. Managing Health & Wellness
 - ▶ Delivered by Loughborough University in collaboration with PepsiCo
 - ▶ From a risk point of view, driver health has major implications for safety on the road and absence, particularly with our driver group getting older. This is this an interactive Workshop with exercise sessions led by Loughborough.
3. Supply Chain Risks coming over the Horizon - are you ready?
 - ▶ Delivered by Chris Stanley, Director of Anthesis Consulting Group
 - ▶ Exploring the emergent sustainability risks that will impact supply chains. It will cover:
 - ▶ What are the known risks?
 - ▶ What about emergent and possible risks?
 - ▶ What are the timescales and what could their impacts be?
 - ▶ How to prioritise and identify mitigating actions

Workshop choices - 2

4. How data and analysis can reduce the risks on strategic decisions

▶ Delivered by Kirsten Tisdale of Aricia Consulting

▶ Appropriate, available data and strong analysis techniques have a key role to play in strategic decision-making, reducing risk by putting facts and figures around the options and trade-offs.

5. Managing Procurement Risk

▶ Delivered by Jo Godsmark, Head of Labyrinth Consulting's Supply Chain division

▶ Explore aspects of outsourced logistics from strategic planning through procurement, on-going contract management and exiting a relationship or changing providers.

6. How robust is your contingency planning?

▶ Delivered by Jane Green of C.S Supply Chains

▶ Many of us have business contingency plans but how robust are they? A look at different techniques, exploring how these might work for us.
